

A marriage search letter will only confirm if a marriage is, or is not, registered with Alberta Vital Statistics. No other information is provided. The search will be conducted using only the information you provide on this application. Do not provide a date range for a search, as all marriage records are searched for the one government fee. Note: records dated prior to 1998 may, or may not, be included in the results due to system limitations. To search marriage records outside Alberta, contact the applicable province/territory/country as Alberta does not have access to records outside Alberta.

You may only search for a marriage record for yourself. You cannot search anyone else.
